December 12, 2017 – Our companies succeeded because we identified opportunities, listened to new ideas, and created an atmosphere of teamwork that made the difference. Today, an open master class was held in the hero city of Kerch for the company's managers and employees. More than 150 people took part in it. During the master class, issues of management, time management, efficiency and motivation were covered, as well as cases from the life of the company were presented and real master classes were held. At this master class, everyone could feel themselves in the role of leaders. We worked very hard on the trainings and wanted it to be more than just a training.
